How happy are the people who worship You with songs, who live in the light of Your kindness! Psalm 89:8, 13-15, TEV. What an honor an privilege we have to know and to worship such an amazing God.

Following the service we have a fellowship meal, and visitors are welcome in a special way to enjoy good company and good food!

There will be no meeting this afternoon.

Thursday Prayer meeting is at 7:00 pm in the fellowship hall doing a series on the “faith of our fathers” having to do with Old & New Testament & also worldly challenges to our faith. (Conference Call 503-621-6701).

For Contemplation: “Christ alone was able to bear the afflictions of the many. “In all their affliction he was afflicted” (Isaiah 63:9). He never bore disease in His own flesh, but He carried the sickness of others. With tenderest sympathy He looked upon the suffering ones who pressed about Him. He groaned in spirit as He saw the work of Satan revealed in all their woe, and He made every case of need and of sorrow His own. No multiplicity of numbers distracted Him. No anguish overwhelmed Him. With a power that never quailed He cast out the evil spirits that possessed mind and body, while the pain of the sufferers thrilled through His whole being. The power of love was in all His healing. He identified His interests with suffering humanity.

...[T]here was ever before Christ the darkened shadow into which He Himself must enter. Ever before Him was the means by which He must pay the ransom for these souls.... When He raised Lazarus from the dead He knew that for that life He must pay the ransom on the cross of Calvary. Every rescue made was to cause Him the deepest humiliation. He was to taste death for every man.... Of the suffering multitudes brought to Christ it is said, “He healed them all” (Matthew 12:15). Thus He expressed His love for the children of men. His miracles were part of His mission.... He knows how to speak the word “Be whole,” and when He has healed the sufferer He says, “Go and sin no more.” That I May Know Him p. 48
