CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

"O Come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the Lord our maker. For He is our God; and we are the people of His pasture, and the sheep of His hand." Psalm 95:6-7. Today we are gathered in God's house to worship the One who created us and who takes responsibility to guide us.

Following the service we have a fellowship meal, and visitors are welcome in a special way to enjoy good company and good food!

Thursday Prayer meeting is at 7:00 pm in the fellowship hall doing a series on the "faith of our fathers" having to do with Old & New Testament & also worldly challenges to our faith. (Conference Call 503-621-6701).

For Contemplation: "Without the kingdom of God we are lost ... and are without hope in the world, but salvation has been provided for us through faith in Jesus Christ. He is the treasure, and when the rubbish of the world is swept away, we are enabled to discern His infinite value...."

The divinity of Christ was as a hidden treasure. At times when He was upon earth divinity flashed through humanity, and His true character was revealed. The God of heaven testified to His oneness with His Son. At His baptism the heavens were opened and the glory of God in the similitude of a dove like burnished gold hovered over the Saviour, and a voice came from heaven, saying, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased" (Matthew 3:17). But the nation to whom Christ came, though professing to be the peculiar people of God, did not recognize the heavenly treasure in the person of Jesus Christ....

The Majesty of heaven was not discerned in the disguise of humanity. He was the divine Teacher sent from God, the glorious Treasure given to humanity. He was fairer than the sons of men, but His matchless glory was hidden under a cover of poverty and suffering. He veiled His glory in order that divinity might touch humanity, and the treasure of immense value was not discerned by the human race....

"The Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us" (John 1:14). The treasure indeed is hidden under the garb of humanity. Christ is the unsearchable riches, and he who finds Christ finds heaven. The human agent who looks upon Jesus, who dwells by faith on His matchless charms, finds the eternal treasure.

Christ does not use this parable to commend the man who hides the treasure until he can buy the field, but His object in using this illustration is to convey to our mind the value of spiritual things. To obtain worldly treasure, the man would make a sacrifice of his all, and how much more should we give for the priceless, heavenly treasure!" That I May Know Him p. 58

Announcements

At the June 15th church business meeting a decision was made to sell the community center in Gaston.

Plan to stay after potluck 1st and 3rd Sabbaths to study with a group of people the 28 fundamental beliefs of our church in the fellowship hall at 2:00.

If you would like your already prepared food heated ahead of time, please indicate on your dish if you want it warmed in the 250 degree oven or baked in the 350 degree oven.

The Audio/Video need some help to raise funds to improve the operation of the department in order to show power points from the back of the church
