CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

"O Sing to the Lord a new song, for He has done marvelous things! His right hand and His holy arm have gotten Him victory....Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth; break forth into joyous song and sing praises! Psalm 98:1, 4. Today is the day to give praise to our victorious God who has the mighty power to deliver us from all sin.

Our weekly fellowship meal is following the church service, and we would love for everyone, especially the visitors to stay and enjoy good company and delicious food! For the Sabbath of April 1 we will need to be out of the hall by 2:30 due to Springhill's funeral service that day.

Thursday Prayer meeting is at 7:00 pm in the fellowship hall doing a study on Evidence for the TRUE church. (Conference Call 503-621-6701).

Women's Retreat will be April 14-16 this year at Lincoln City. Talk to Cherry.

Redemption's Story is coming to this church April 14 for one week only. Tell your friends about it. The time will be from 7-8 pm on April 14-16, 18 & 19, 21 & 22. Please pray for God to draw the people and bless the meetings.

Girls' Connect and southern Oregon Women's Ministry are holding a retreat a Milo Academy on Jun 2-4 for women of all ages. Tawny Sportsman will be the speaker for the weekend. Pickup a postcard on ministry counter.

For Contemplation: "This is the warning we would give to you who claim to believe the truth. "Yet a little while is the light with you." We would ask you to consider the shortness of human life, how swiftly time is passing. Golden opportunities and privileges are within our reach. The plenteous, abundant mercy of God is waiting your demand upon its richest treasures. The Saviour is waiting to dispense His blessings freely, and the only question is, Will you accept them? The rich provisions have been made, and light is shining in a variety of ways; but this light will lose its preciousness to those who do not appreciate it, who do not accept and respond to it, or, having received it, do not pass the light along to others.

Your life, your soul, your strength, your capabilities, your powers of mind and body, are to be regarded by you as entrusted capital to be improved for your Lord during the period of your life. You are to stand in your allotted order in God's great army, to work out His plan in saving your own soul and the souls of others. This you may do by living a consistent Christian life, by putting forth earnest efforts, by learning in the school of Christ His ways, His purposes, and subordinating your will and way to the will and way of Christ...

The Christian is to live a life distinctly different from that of the worldling. The worldling lives a cheap quality of life. He consents not to spiritual life. It is he who has the love of God that has life; it is he whose hope is centered, not in this world, but in Christ, the great center. That I May Know Him p. 87
