CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENT

“Lord God Almighty, none is as mighty as You; in all things You are faithful, O Lord. You rule over the powerful sea; You calm its angry waves....Heaven is Yours, the earth also; You made the world and everything in it....How happy are the people who worship You with songs, who live in the light of Your kindness!” Psalm 89:8-15. What an amazing God we serve!

A special welcome to each person here today, especially if you are visiting with us. We invite you to stay for our fellowship dinner following the service.

For Contemplation: “There always has been, and there always will be, diversity of gifts. It is not the great gifts alone that God requires and accepts, but He calls for the smaller talents, and will accept them if men and women will use them to His glory. Have we not become servants of the Master by His grace? It is not, then, our own property that is entrusted to us, but the Lord's talents. The capital is His, and we are responsible for its use or its abuse.

I hope efforts will be made in every church to arouse those who are doing nothing. May God make these realize that He will require of them the one talent with improvement; and if they neglect to gain other talents besides the one, they will meet with the loss of that one talent and their own souls also. We hope to see a change in our churches.

The Householder is preparing to return and call His stewards to account for the talents He has entrusted to them. God pity the do-nothings then! Those who hear the welcome plaudit “Well done, good and faithful servant” will have well done in the improvement of their abilities and means to the glory of God. Who will come up to the help of the Lord, to the help of the Lord against the mighty? ” To Be Like Jesus, p. 80

One way we hope will help is that our communications team is releasing "An Open Letter" from me to the conference field this afternoon. Hopefully, this will help members who still need more context".
