CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENT

"It is good to give thanks to Yahweh, to play in honour of Your name, Most High, to proclaim Your love at daybreak and Your faithfulness all through the night to the music of the zither and lyre, to the rippling of the harp....Great are Your achievements, Yahweh, immensely deep Your thoughts!" Psalm 92:1-5. We worship our amazing God today.

A special welcome to each person here today, especially if you are visiting with us. We invite you to stay for our fellowship dinner following the service.

Daniel Seminar will be Thursday nights at 7pm led by Pastor Vio. It will be here at Gaston Church and will last for Three more weeks.

For Contemplation: "God has not given talents capriciously. He who knows all things, who is acquainted with each one, has given to every person his or her work. Those to whom He has entrusted much are not to boast, for what they possess is not their own; it is lent them on trial; and the greater the endowment, the greater the returns required. Day by day God is testing men and women, to see whether they will acknowledge Him as the giver of all that they have. He watches to see whether they will prove themselves worthy of eternal riches. The use they make of their precious endowments decides their destiny for eternity.

Of all the gifts that God has bestowed upon His children, none is capable of being a greater blessing than the gift of speech. With the tongue we convince and persuade; with it we offer prayer and praise to God; and with it we tell others of the Redeemer's love. God would have us consecrate this gift to His service, speaking only such words as will help those around us. And if Christ rules in our hearts, our words will reveal the purity, beauty, and fragrance of a character molded and fashioned by Him. But if we are under the guidance of the enemy of all good, our words will echo his sentiments. Watch well your words. Consecrate your gift of speech to the Lord's service; for He will one day require it at your hands."

Announcements:

Coming to a theater near you. April 17th & 18th a new version of To Tell the World called The Hopeful will be in theaters at 7:00pm Story line “William Miller’s faith is in ruins. After miraculously surviving a fierce battle in the War of 1812, Miller questions why God spared him. His search for wisdom leads to an astonishing prophesy—the world is going to end. The Hopeful unfolds as a story of a man burdened with the knowledge of Christ’s return. Miller’s message resonates with some—even as it is scorned by others. When a young woman named Ellen Harmon listens to one of his sermons she is transformed. And through her witness the message begins to take hold. Her preaching grows beyond prophecy and develops into a more holistic vision for how Christians should live and worship. We see blossoming the seeds of a new global movement of faith—the Seventh-day Adventist Church. The Hopeful is the true story of a community whose lives were transformed as they learn what it means to truly wait for Jesus. This sweeping drama, set in 19th century New England, invites audiences of all ages to imagine how hope can change the world.” To see trailer go here <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2QkLDug4d7s> or here https://www.fathomevents.com/events/the-hopeful/?utm_campaign=The%20Hopeful&utm_source=Fathom&utm_medium=PressRelease&utm_content=2024_TheHopeful_Fathom_Press_PressRelease

Oregon Conference & Other Churches:

We didn’t show the video message of our Conference President, Elder Dan Linrud, a couple of weeks ago, where he shared with people about the financial challenges the Conference is facing. Elder Linrud writes, “I’m also sorry for the anxiety our members across the field are experiencing. One way we hope will help is that our communications team is releasing “An Open Letter” from me to the conference field this afternoon. Hopefully, this will help members who still need more context”. We are attaching the link (click here).
